The Senior Class of Granville High School

THE 1950

BLUE AND WHITE

To "LARRY" --

Whose ability as our coach has won the respect of us all,

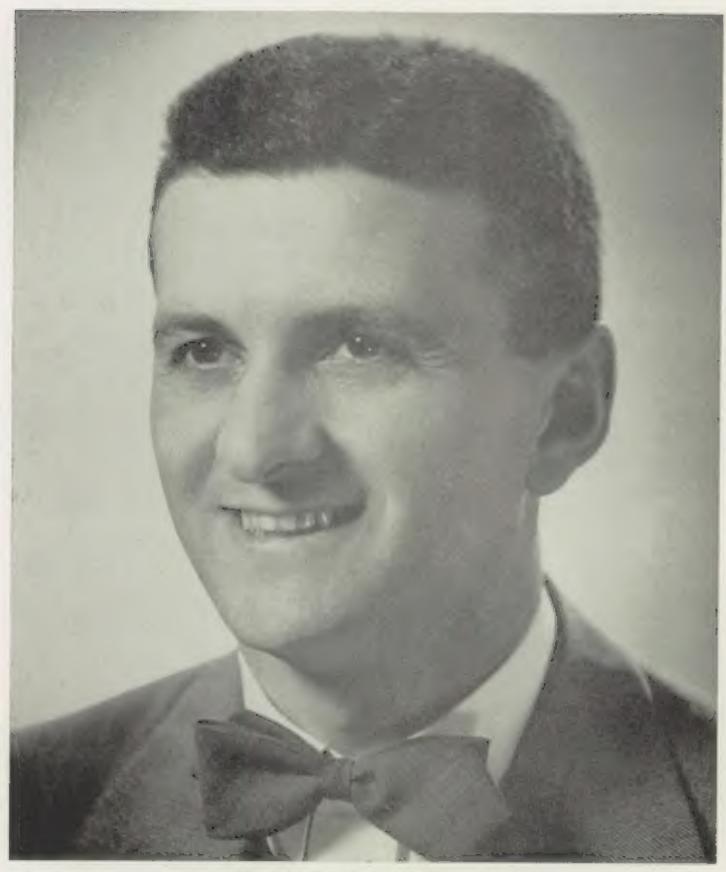

Whose cheerful disposition and driving skill has added so much to our school lives, and

Whose friendly ways helped us as our homeroom adviser during our seventh year at school,

We, the Senior Class, dedicate this, our 1950 Blue and White.

We Honor_

Administration

- The work, friendliness, and cooperation between the faculty and the student body of our school cannot be successful without able leaders.
- With Mr. Martin, as superintendent, and Mr. Smith, as principal, Granville has two excellent advisors. We the students wish to thank these gentlemen for their splendid work in guiding us successfully through the school year of 1949-50.

Elementary Teachers

- To the elementary teachers falls the big task of preparing the students for more advanced study. The grades of the bigh school pupils show that they are doing a grand job.
- There are four new teachers this year: Miss Moore, Mrs. Archibald, Mrs. Taylor, and Miss Martin.

Our Custodians

RAY PARKER

Mr. Parket, who came to Granville High School last year, has made many friends among the students and faculty by his cheerful and willing cooperation, not only during his regular hours but for events held at night in the building

HOWARD BOWMAN

Mr. Bowman has just recently been assigned to the grade school building as custodian. We hope that he likes his work there and judging from reports, he is doing a fine job

ERNEST MOUSER

Ernte, as he is familiarly known to students and faculty alike, completes his twenty-fifth year as custodian at Granville High School this year. The fine appearance of the building and grounds attest his untiring efforts to make our school attractive and well kept.

The Senior Prophecy

(From the Newark Advocate, May 28, 1955)

Last evening. May 27, 1955, the Class of 1950 held its fifth annual reunion. The dinner was served in the Granville Inn at 7:00 o'clock. After a delicious meal, which was prepared by Audrey Biliman, a varied program was presented by some of the talented graduates of 1950. This program featured a dance routine by Wilma Hannahs and operatic selections from the forth-coming debut of Joanne Hutchins. After the performance of the above ment oned girls Mury Lou William at well us the lighter side of the arts by presenting a sketch of her own comedy show which is broadcasted nightly except Saturdays and Sundays over WCLT. Harriett Wells expressed the inpraction of the entire group by her estatic engages, after each the Common Carol Lantz and her orchestra featuring Carol on the violin. The remainder of the evening was devoted to a social gathering which lasted until the "wee" hours of the morning

During this time many people were in for surprises, for example who would think that our own Bob Simross was the coach at Granville High School and that the Sammy Phillips was employed by the school as a full time mechanic to keep the his extraining circin conning condition. It seems that his his list own, his he games due to the fact that the referee was Don Carlyle. During the course of the evening's chatter it was discovered that Dick Glover came all the way from Canada where he operates a fur trading post for the Dominion. We also found that Herbert Breymater and John Lantz are joint operators of the "Sally Jones Plantation," and that Mary Ellen Quick is in charge of their racing stables. It seems though you just can't beat them -- they've won the Kentucky Derby for three consecutive years. Turning for a moment to the fashion world, we learn that Joyce Bennett is now a leading dress designer in New York and that Jessie Hodges is a fashionable hair stylist. It was also revealed that Marilyn Hiles is still trying to discover a newer and easier method of bleach my hair. In checking up on the old familiar bistory case it was to miftle Million Saunders is the Mayor of Granville. Alice Hutchins has progressed to the U.S. Am riski lership in Creat Britian with Bruce Schilling heading her stoff in the tin, n service as a consulting lawyer. Two of the late arrivals were Jack Lebevre and Ralph Young, Jack immediately announced that he has perfected a new drug soon to be marketed that was guaranteed to put pounds on any one. Jack, as you mark know, is one of the busy young physicians in the village. Ralph, whose chief interest still is in athletics, stopped over to attend the banquet while on a scouting trip as head trainer for the text war, t Olympic meet. I welcame break in the events, came when he is a fine kindly consented to play "Onward Granville" on her French Horn. Lela Piper was so more is the rend tion, that she grabbed the nearest broom and quite for, in, herself in reveries of her high school position as head drum majorette, threw it over the chandilier. David Grant rushed up front with his familiar little black bag and put a penny in the fuse box, thereby restoring the lights. David was anxious that no one overlook his fiancee to whom he finally popped the question after seven years of going steady.

While the crowd was still applauding, Maryan Francis came up led by her sceingere dog, to give us a sketch of her play, now current on Broadway. It was rumored that she lost her sight while writing her last hit (a tragedy) in a dim garret as she was unable to afford another candle.

After these interesting interludes, the guests again started catching up on the news. Their eyes really weren't deceiving them when they beheld Joan McDaniel walk by with a diamond studded dress. She told her classmates she had made her fortune from a discovery of a freekle cream which had high vanishing qualities.

Brad Stark and Ann Heckman Stark drew a great deal of attention, especially around 10.00 o'clock when they had to dash home to fix the bottles for their triplets. Ann remarked that she was looking forward to her children going to school because Sue Coopertider is now head nurse in the new grade school building. Ann's only son is even now looking forward to photography in the new shop building Helping her with the girl's clothes is Louise Collins, capable and popular local seam stress. Sue Pinkerton entertains the Stark children on her "Baby Hour" at 11.00 o'clock every weekday morning over a national radio hookup

Those of the class who had thoughts of owning their own home some day, have already consulted Bill Moore concerning building by submitting their ideas to his capable and attractive private secretary and assistant. Sara Hartman.

Edith Young who always liked to pursue interesting cases is now ambulance chasing for that very successful attorney. Wayland Marlow. Wayland has not given up his interest in athletics, however, and his friend Ronnie Van Atta, who just hung out his M. D. shingle, is still waiting hopefully for Wayland as a patient. Mary Eden Shields, who has just finished a bitch with the WAVES is the nurse in Van Atta's office.

Like most farmers, Kathryn Camp appeared late, after having had to pace the brooder house at the last minute

The climax of the evening came when Don Femulee announced that he had it all over his classmates because he was still loafing

Pictures and snapshots were taken by Bob Deal before the business meeting was called by the one and only senior home room teacher. Miss Robinson.

It was decided by the 1950 graduates to hold their next reunion in California so that Barbara Pheneger Jones might attend. The business meeting was then adjourned and all went home after a very enjoyable evening

We, the Class of 1951, can boast an outstanding year. Unc the capable direction of Mr. Croskey we presented a gripping mystery as our Junior Class play.

We were also honored by winning first prize on our Homecoming float.

Several Juniors were initiated into Thespians, and we were well represented in Y-Teens, Hi-Y, Band, and Chorus. In athletics many Juniors played on the football, basketball, baseball, track, and golf teams.

We boast of having the largest class in GHS as well as having had the same class president since the Seventh Grade, namely, Bruce Williams. This year Bruce is also representing Granville on the County Student Council.

After discharging our responsibilities for the year with a banquet and dance honoring the senior class, we are looking forward to the coming year with great expectations.

We are grateful for the helpfulness and cooperation of our advisers, Miss Miley and Mr. Croskey.

The class of 1952 feels sure that the school year 1949-50 was a good year. There re seven Hi Y members and twenty-three Y-Teens. The Sophomores were well rep ented on the football, basketball, and baseball teams. Pearl Phillips, Charlotte I ewis and Dorothy Wilcox were three of the five reserve cheerleaders. There were also iphomores represented in the band and chorus. "The Home" was the title of the Poat we had in the Homecoming Parade

We thank our capable advisors, Miss Cozad and Miss Walz, for helping us our part in the life of Granville High

Freshman Class

The Freshman Class is proud to have participated in so many school activities during the past year. In athletics they took part as members of the football, basket ball, baseball, track and golf teams. Fifteen members of the class were in the chorus and ten in the band

For the second consecutive year our class won the annual magazine sale with the first prize winner a Freshman

Our float titled "The Park" did not win a prize in the Homecoming parade but we have high hopes for next year

Our class roster was increased this year by the coming of Louise Claffey Dick Hanby, and Emants Veits

The outstanding social event sponsored by the Council this year was the all school party given on November 23

Granville was represented on the Licking County Student Council by Alice Hutchins and Bruce Williams

Junior Class Play

No Way Out," by Owen Davis, was presented November 17 and 18 by the Junior Class

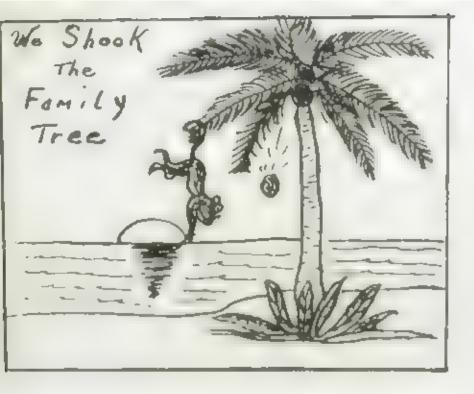

It was an all class project. There were ten lumors in the cast. Other members worked backstage, with make-up, tickets, publicity, and as ushers. Without their help the play would have been just a play instead of the real success that it was. The play was a mystery built around the scheme of a prominent doctor to rid of his step daughter and gain control of her money. Everything turned out well for the step daughter, though not so well for the doctor. The play was full of suspense and held the interest of the audience until the final curtain.

The Junior Class is much indebted to Mr. Robert McCroskey for his able and patient direction of the play

Thespian Society, The Granville High School Dramatic Club, started this year with a "tar and feathering" initiation for it's new members. The club unanimously voted to join the Thespians, a nation-wide dramatic society

The primary objective of the club is not only to teach acting, but to teach the technique of applying make-up, and constructing sets

This year the club produced three one act plays directed by the club advisor. Mi McCroskey. These plays, "Pink and Patches," "Jazz and Minuet," and "Poor Maddalena" were presented on March 16th

Y-Teens started the year by inviting their mothers to a beautiful candle activities held as their formal initiation

The club was divided into four groups or "triangles," which chose a worths project. These projects were: The County Home, The Veteran's Hospital, The Stati Hospital, and our own Granville High

During the year the Y-Teens of refreshments at the football and baskerball games of red the sending of candy bars to Europe, took charge of the Thank of the county Home and ended the year happily with a dinner and theatre party

The club presented an amplifier to the school for use at football games, dance and other school projects for which it might be useful

The members of the club wish to thank our capable advisers. Miss Miley and Miss Robinson, and our fixers for their work during this especially fine year

Hi-Y

The 1949 50 Ht Y season has been a most enjoyable one. The group has function ed under the able leadership of their adviser. Mr. Engle, and their president. Bill Moore

November found the Granville Hi Y playing host to the district meeting. In April, they had their annual party with music, dancing, and delicious refreshments

Cleaning the trophies was one of the projects of the Hi-Y carried out this year. The club was also in charge of the Christmas assembly program in December. Included in the program was the singing of carols and a scene portraying the coming of the Three. Wise. Men.

This year the Hi-Y, as a body attended Sunday Church services in each of the four Granville Churches.

At the close of a successful year the members feel confident that the organization will continue to grow and have many more such years.

Music

The Granville High Marching Band stepped out this year in their snappy new uniforms and gave many excellent performances on the football field during the half time period. The band is under the able direction of Mr. James Lee, who spent much time and effort improving it. Granville is very proud to have the largest marching band in the county

A teature of the expanded program for the band was the Spring Concert given in March. It was well received and it is hoped it will be an annual event

The band members wish to express their appreciation to the school and the Band Boosters Club for their help in raising funds for their new uniforms and for purchasing new instruments which included two saxaphones, a bass drum, a sousaphone, and a baritone

Sex al of the band members represented Granville at Ohio Wesleyan and the district contest at Denison University. The entire band performed at Otterbein College and one band member is participating in the state contest at Capital University Several members are planning to attend the Baldwin Wallace Band Chinic held in Juny

Under the capable direction of Mr. James Lee, the chorus this you has taken part in many school and county music activities. Thirteen members of the kin in were chosen song with all county chorus. Twenty-four students from the chorus attended the annual music festival at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio this spring In December they presented a concert of beautiful Christmas music. In April the chorus contributed to the Open House by participating in the music program with the band. A group from the chorus intered the contest for high schools held at Dennison I versity this year and won a "good" rating. With a satisfactory performance and them, the chorus looks forward to a bigger and better year in

Yearbook Staff

The Senior Class of 1950 in presenting this publication hopes that it will enable the public to become more familiar with the students, faculty, athletics, and activities which characterize Granville High School

The Class gratefully acknowledges those who have helped to make this 1950 publication of the Blue and White possible. Special thanks go to Mr. J. S. Mother way and the Pontiac Engraving Co., Mr. Ralph Mickel and the Scholl Printing Co. Mr. W. C. Sims and the De Luxe Craft Manufacturing Co., Mr. Roland Thompson photographer, and to the businessmen for sponsor pages and advertisements

Blue and White News Journalism

This year the Blue and White Staff was considerably smaller than it was last year We have succeeded in putting out a small weekly paper which was very popular with the durent bedy being with a periodic large paper. Our accomplishming this year wer due largely to the keen and responsible assistance of our adviser. Mrs. Lewis. The members of the staff wish to thank her and our capable editor. Dave Grant, for their unfailing efforts

Majorettes

This year as last, the band while marching, was under the able leadership of Lela Piper. The two majorettes, Sue Claggett and Mary Lou Williams, livened the halftime shows by performing many dance steps and exhibitions of baton twirling. Both Lela and Mary are Seniors and Sue is a junior. All three girls should be congratulated for a job well done.

Varsity Basketball

This year's edition of Granville High School's Varsity basketball squad was a very good one. Coach Larry Peterson brought his squad victoriously through twelve of the seventeen games played

In the County League this year, the Blue Aces won 9 out of 12. They lost two tough ones to Utica and were defeated by a determined Hebron quitet. The team entered the County Tournament hopeful of bringing home the champion in the looked for a time as if they might do just that, as they steam rollered over a surprisingly transf Homer team, only to be side tracked in another heart breaking loss to Utica. The Blue Aces earned a berth in the District by edging Pataskala in a hard fought contest.

In the District Tournament, they played aggressive, heads up basketbal aqueak past a strong Danville five. The Aces couldn't keep up with a ta'ler, fast breaking London team, and were rudely jolted out of the tournaments

Steve Michaelis, Bruce Williams, and Lynn Atwell were honored by being chosen tibe second All County Basketball Team

With only four of the twelve players on the squad graduating mext year a term hould be a very promising on

Baseball

The record hung up by the Blue Aces baseball team last year was the County Championship and the runner up team to Carding ton, District Tournament winner at Columbus. The "50" team opened the season with a flying start to equal this record by defeating Upper Arlington and Utica, Greeting Coach Ward Lahm were eleven lettermen from last year's team.

The spirit of the team coupled with the fine coaching of Mi Lahm has made baseball one of the most popular sports at G. H. S.

Cheerleaders

I have tally for the Granville team! That should also be fifteen at the sale that the Cheerleaders. This year the cheerleaders had a new adviser. Mrs. Dunn. They have shown much improvement at our games, by bringing along those joyful smiles, snappy yells and colorful uniforms

Our varsity cheerleaders are seven in number: five girls and wo base. The stand is completed by a reserve section of five girls. Working burn a justy, they skillfully inspire the Granville fans and the seven cheatted vocal support to our teams.

Homecoming

Fime marches on! This was the theme for Homecoming this year. Gayly decorated floats were used to show the changes from colonial times to the modern erain such things as the home, books, schools, dating, and music. A close and exciting game in the evening, with the presentation of the Queen and her attendents at half time, proved a fitting ending to the 1949 Homecoming
